Saturday, Jan. 14

Reading and Telling the Stories of Scripture

Presenter: Nancy Schreck OSF,
D. Min. in Scripture
President, Sisters of St. Francis

This first retreat day of the series will explore some of the stories Jesus used to teach and challenge his followers to understand something of the Reign of God. These stories in parable form are a window into the mind of Jesus and a mirror into our lives. The process of Lectio Divina will be used to enable participants to make a connection between the stories Jesus told and the story of our lives of faith.

Saturday, Feb. 18

Putting Faith into Action

Presenter: Fr. Mark Ressler
Pastor, St. Joseph the Worker
former professor of morality,
Loras College

What goes into making moral decisions? We will explore conscience in terms of superego, formation, character, and choice as well as investigate what is necessary for moral objectivity as well as the three contexts of moral discernment: social, situational and personal. All of this will be applied to current moral issues facing American society today.

Saturday, March 17

Can You Drink This Cup?

Presenter: Fr. Jim Starbuck
Frequent Retreat & Mission Presenter
Cedar Falls, IA

Suffering involves the virtues of courage leading to compassion which ultimately leads to Christ.

Sunday, April 29

Peace in Today's World

Presenters: Ginny Heldorfer OSF,
Pat Farrell OSF, Marci Blum OSF

How can we find peace in a fast-paced and anxious world? We will explore ways to find peace in our inner world, relations with others, and the outer world. Includes a walking meditation. The retreat begins with lunch.

Saturday, May 26

Will You Be My Servant?

Presenters: Dave Cushing
Adult Faith Formation Coordinator
Waterloo Area

Mary Pedersen, D. Min.

Frequent Archdiocesan Presenter

The idea of leaders who serve dates back to Jesus Christ, who told his disciples, "Whoever wishes to be great among you shall be your servant." (Matthew 20:26). We will examine the concept of "Servant Leadership" both in its original and more modern forms and explore how we can exercise servant leadership in our families, work and church.

Be Still
